

Eco-Village Development

Building resilience in tribal communities through Eco-Village development:
Lessons from an NGO's experiments in the Eastern Ghat Regions of Odisha

Prepared By:

Achyut Das¹, Vidhya Das², Dr. P K Mishra³,
Ananya Behera⁴ and Kulaswami Jagannath Jena⁵

Exercise of Micro-Level Planning in Tentulikhunti Block, Nabarangpur

Video Documentary Show For Community Mobilisation

Nursery Raising & Management by Women Group

Land Development in Family Farm

In Situ Sub-Soil Moisture Conservation

Green & Stone Fencing in Family Farm

Plantation of Fruit Crops & Nutritional Plants in Family Farm

Glimpse of Fruit Production in Family Farm

Plantation of Nutritional Plants in Family Farm

M o r i n g a

Papaya

B
a n
a n
a

Custard Apple

Amla

Forest Species in Family Farm

Jafra

Jackfruit

Broom

Special Promotion of Jackfruit Plantation as Climate Smart Agro-Forestry

Intercropping:

- To increase the productivity of the soil and ultimately production of the crop, vegetables have taken up as intercropping by farmers in family farm in 50 villages.

Contd...

Promotion of Aromatic and Local Paddy Varieties in 50 villages

Promotion of Millets in 50 villages under KKS Project

Contd...

Pulses

Seed cum Grain Bank

Bio input/ Organic /Natural Farming promotion/ Improving Soil Health:

Organic Liquid Manure

Preparation and Use of Organic Liquid Manure by 1200 Small Land Holders

Irrigation Development

(743 acres of land irrigated through 37 Farm Ponds, 164 Water Storage Tanks, 26 Intake Wells and 36 Lift Irrigation Systems)

Bamboo Drip Irrigation System

Fishery Cultivation by WSHG as IGP in Eco-Villages

Glimpse of Fish Production (250 KG) from one Farm Pond by the women group at Kandraguda Village, Tentulikhunti Block

Climate Smart Amenities: Smokeless Chullah

Usage of Solar Lantern

As Climate Smart Amenities

The Farmers of Durkhal Village standing with their Solar Lights

Eco-Village Development

Farmers Field School for Progressive Farmers

